Copy the following paragraph neatly in the lines given below.

Honesty means always telling the truth and not stealing or cheating. It is a very important quality to have. When you are honest, people trust you and believe what you say. If you lie a lot, even when you are telling the truth, nobody will believe you, just like the story of the “Boy Who Cried Wolf”. Being honest shows that you are a good person with strong character. It helps you make real friends and feel good about yourself. Always remember that honesty is the best policy.
