SECTION – A (Reading) 10 Marks

A1. Read the following poem carefully and answer the questions given below.

I sit in ponds and in the rain,
Or hop about in a muddy drain.

As a tadpole, I swim with cheer,
A tiny fish-like thing, so clear!
I flick my tongue to catch my food.
It works so fast – now that's quite good!

I live on land and water too,
In places damp with drops of dew.
My colours match the plants and trees,
I hide so well in grass and leaves!

A2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below.

One morning the giant heard some lovely music. He jumped out of the bed and looked out. He saw a wonderful sight. The children were sitting in the branches of the trees. The birds were flying about. They were singing sweetly. The grass was green and there were flowers. What a lovely scene! Only in one corner of the garden it was still winter. There was a little boy standing. He couldn't reach up to the branches of the tree. He was weeping. As soon as the selfish giant saw the little boy, his heart softened. He put that boy on the top of the tree. The garden at once became full of green leaves and flowers. The birds came and sang. The giant knocked down the wall of the garden.

'It is your garden now, little children', said the giant. The children were no longer afraid of the giant. They started coming to the garden every day. The giant played with them in his beautiful garden. He praised his garden and said, 'I have many beautiful flowers. But the children are the most beautiful of them all.'

G1. Write the passage neatly.

Sometimes, sick people are given neem juice to drink. People use the twigs of the neem tree as a toothbrush to clean their teeth. Burn some dry neem leaves inside the house and see the mosquitoes disappear! When you store winter clothing or blankets, keep dry neem leaves between them. This helps keep away insects. Keep dry neem leaves at the bottom of the rice bin, this keeps pests away.
